

Great Falls Development Authority, Inc.

Conflict of Interest Statement

Adopted 12/16/20

For Officers, Directors, Committee Members, Staff Members, Volunteers and certain Consultants

The Great Falls Development Authority, Inc. (GFDA), and all Officers, Directors, Committee members, and Staff scrupulously shall avoid any conflict between their respective personal, professional or business interests and the interests of GFDA, in any and all actions taken by them on behalf of GFDA in their respective capacities.

This statement is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations, or any applicable regulations of state and federal programs utilized by GFDA.

No member of the GFDA Board of Directors or any of its Committees shall derive any personal profit or gain, directly or indirectly, by reason of his or her participation with GFDA. Each individual shall disclose to GFDA any personal interest which he or she may have in any matter pending before GFDA and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter.

Any member of the GFDA Board, any Committee or Staff who is an officer, board member, a committee member or staff member of a borrower company or a loan applicant company shall identify his or her affiliation with such company or companies; further, in connection with any credit policy committee or board action specifically directed to that company, he/she shall not participate in the decision affecting that company and the decision must be made and/or ratified by the full board.

Any member of the GFDA Board, any Committee or Staff shall refrain from obtaining any list of GFDA clients for personal or private solicitation purposes at any time during the term of their affiliation.

Any member of the GFDA Board, Loan Committee or Staff shall not have an ownership interest in any borrower of GFDA.

EDA Revolving Loan Funds Conflict of Interest

Interested Party means any officer, employee or member of the board of directors of GFDA, including any other parties that advise, approve, recommend or otherwise participate in the business decisions of GFDA, such as agents, advisors, consultants, attorneys, accountants or shareholders. An Interested Party also includes the Interested Party's Immediate Family and other persons directly connected to the Interested Party by law or through a business arrangement.

An Interested Party of GFDA shall not receive, directly or indirectly, any personal or financial benefits resulting from the disbursement of EDA loans. GFDA shall not lend EDA RLF funds to an Interested Party. Former board members of GFDA and members of his or her Immediate Family shall not receive a loan from an EDA RLF for a period of two years from the date that the board member last served on GFDA's board of directors.
